MORWELL'S BIRTHDAY

10 SEPTEMBER 2028

One town. Generations of stories. A future we shape together.

SAVE THE DATE

WHY 10 SEPTEMBER?

Morwell's story began before the railway. Morwell Historical Society records that Peter Jeremiah Smith established a hotel at Morwell Bridge in 1858. The earliest exact contemporary notice presently located for accommodation associated with 'the Morewell' appeared on 10 September 1858. That documented day gives Morwell one date to gather around.
